PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—There was a heavy rain again last night. To-day weather is variable.

Price of greenbacks unchanged.

Expensive machinery and hoisting works and timbering of the new shaft in the Black Diamond coal mine at Nortonville were destroyed by fire last night. Loss about $75 000. The engines were the finest on the coast. The fire is believed to be the work of an incendiary.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—A later report states that the loss by fire in the Black Diamond coal mine won't exceed $10 000. Portion of the engines were broken by the falling of the burning building but it is believed they can be successfully repaired. P. B. Cornwall, President of the Company, left for the mine to-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—There was a fire to-night on East street which destroyed four frame buildings, the property of Mr Roberts. One was occupied as a residence, another a junk store, another a Chinese laundry, and a cooper shop. Loss $2 000.

County Judge Stanley has resigned on account of ill health.

Redington [illegible] mine has declared a dividend of $30 a share, payable at once.

The Eldorado Water and Deep Gravel Mining Co. has assessed $10 per share.

Prominent among the gentlemen attached to the suite of the King of the Sandwich Islands on the occasion of the proposed visit to the United States, are Capt. Hon. John Makinikalcena and His Excellency John O. Dominis. The former was editor of the native official organ Aaquolat, and now is Governor of Maui, while the latter has held the position of Adjutant-General, and Governor of Oahu, several years.

The trial in the case of the United States vs T J Sherwood was concluded to-day and resulted in favor of the plaintiff. Sherwood was formerly deputy postmaster at Marysville and in this suit the Government sought to recover from him and his sureties, G. Brock[illegible] and [illegible], $[illegible] 51, with interest, the balance due when the deputy's term of office expired. A verdict for $2 074 30 was rendered.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance is in session this evening at Fidelity Hall. There is a very fair representation of the Order in attendance.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—French Vice-Consul Jules Berton at Sacramento has tendered his resignation to the Consul to be forwarded to the home Government.

Interior California.

REDWOOD CITY, October 27.—W. F. Lanenstein, Edmund Meservey and John Meyers, who left here in a small skiff Saturday evening last intending to go to Alviso and return Sunday, have not been seen or heard from since. The sloop Shooting Star was searching for them Monday all day without success. It is feared the skiff filled and sunk. The party are all young men about 20 years of age and highly respected.

SAN DIEGO, October 27.—The first officer of the steamer Costa Rica with five men in a small boat arrived here this evening. They report that on Sunday morning at 1 o'clock the steamer broke her shaft while about 400 miles south of this port and 40 miles from land. The Captain was going to try to get in and anchor under Cape Colnett until relief came. The first officer states he was overhauled yesterday by the steamer Newbern to whom he made known the condition of the Costa Rica. The Newbern immediately went to the assistance of the disabled steamer. Just at dark this evening the smoke of a steamer was seen a long distance at sea to the southwest. It is possible it is the Newbern with the Costa Rica in tow. From the first officer we learn that there had been a revolution in Lower California. Insurgents organized at San Jose and went to Lapaz murdering and plundering from there to Cape St. Lucas where the people arose and after a sharp engagement killed the leader and thirteen of his followers, putting an end to the revolution. When the Costa Rica left, all was again quiet.

The brig Ke[illegible] finished loading wheat and cleared for England to-day.

Had splendid rain for three hours last night. Recent showers have started vegetation considerably.

WATSONVILLE, October 27.—It commenced to rain here Sunday morning and continued until this morning. It has been the most severe storm known here at this season of the year. Many farmers are seriously damaged as considerable hay yet remains in the field not protected and the bean crop is not all gathered.

The Teachers' Institute of this county met here to-day. Prof. Allen of the State Normal School, delivers a lecture to-day.

OAKLAND, October 27.—The fruit packing and drying establishment of Order & Co. near Fruitvale, 20 miles east of here, was totally destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It is not known whether it was insured. Loss, $1,800.

No further arrests have been made in connection with the fires of Saturday and Monday nights. Property owners will keep a close watch to-night.

BARTLETT SPRINGS, October 27.—It has been raining and snowing here for three days. The stages to Cloverdale and Calistoga are blocked with snow. The Colusa stage left this morning. The telegraph wire between this place and [illegible] has embedded in the snow for miles on the mountain that works feebly to Middletown and Colusa; the snow is three feet deep on the summit.

COLUSA, October 27.—The storm is gradually subsiding. [illegible] 100 inches rain have fallen up to noon to-day. There will be but little loss of grain from the storm as most of it was protected by sheds.

WOODLAND, October 27.—Rain commenced falling last Saturday night since which time it has not ceased, only at short intervals. It has done considerable damage to hay that has just been baled and remained uncovered. Wheat has been damaged along the railroad track, it being exposed, but shippers are doing their utmost to have it removed as soon as possible. Since the rain commenced there has fallen 2 37 inches up to 9 o'clock A. M., since which time it has continued almost steadily.

STOCKTON, October 27.—The rain storm still continues with short intervals.

Chief of Police Myers arrested two deserters this afternoon named John H. Dillon and Marc Featherby.

Advices from the surrounding country state that the rain storm has done but trifling damage.

On the Copperopolis Railroad to-day near Farmington there was a smash up of a freight train. The report says some six or seven freight cars were ditched and the engines badly wrecked. No particulars.

NEVADA.

PIOCHE, October 27.—[illegible] night at 9 P. M. the incoming Hamilton stage was stopped two miles from Pioche. Wells, Fargo & Co. and the U. S. mail were robbed of $2000. No passengers on the stage. The driver reports that the stage was stopped by three men who unhitched the horses, bound him to a tree, with instructions not to try to free himself under an hour on pain of death. It is thought the robbery was committed by the driver himself, and he is in jail. A couple of other men however have been arrested on suspicion.

It has been snowing nearly all day.

THE BEECHER SCANDAL AS IT STANDS.—Mr. Tilton has brought an action against Mr. Beecher to recover damages for the wrong alleged to have been done him. Mr. Beecher has brought action against Mr. Tilton. A lady has brought an action against Moulton. Mr. Bowen has brought three actions against the Brooklyn Eagle. Moulton threatens an action against Beecher. A lady has brought an action against the Daily Graphic. Tilton has brought an action against the World and Tribune. A Grand Jury has indicted Tilton and Moulton, and Mrs. Tilton threatens to publish another statement.—N. Y. Times.

DR SEYMOUR'S DEFEAT

A New York dispatch of the 22d instant says:

The General Protestant Episcopal Convention resumed its sittings this morning. After religious service the House went into secret session.

During the morning session a letter was read from Bishop elect Seymour, in which he said that as this investigation had developed charges against him, the circumstances of which were known only to himself and others not members of the Convention, they could only be disproved by himself and them, and he asked permission to speak before the house. He deprecates the idea that he ever sought to be elevated to the Episcopate. It was decided that this letter should not be accepted, and permission to speak before the house was not granted.

At 4 o'clock the vote on Dr Seymour's confirmation was taken, the doors leading to the House being locked and guarded. The vote was taken by dioceses and Dr Seymour was not confirmed. In the clerical vote forty one dioceses were represented which resulted as follows: Ayes 19, noes 10, divided 12, the latter being counted in the negative. In the lay vote there were but forty dioceses represented, the delegates from Arkansas being absent. It resulted—ayes 13, noes 18, divided 9. By the Constitution of the House it is necessary that a candidate for a Bishopric receive a majority vote of the dioceses represented in the Convention. It was learned that Dr Seymour's defeat was due principally to the letter written by Bishop Cox, secondly to papers written by Prof. Buell of the New York Theological Seminary, in which Dr Seymour is charged with allowing Father Grafton, extremist, of Boston, to have access to students in the Seminary of New York.

The Convention adjourned till to-morrow, when it will again go into open session.

Another telegram says:

The vote in Rev. Dr Seymour's case, counted by individuals, shows a clear majority in his favor. It was only the peculiar mode of voting by dioceses and orders that secured his defeat. A letter was read to the House on Wednesday by the Bishop of Western New York that did Dr Seymour great injustice, and a searching investigation will be made at once, which it is expected will fully vindicate him. After a discussion of eight days none of the charges against him were sustained. He was found to be both sound in doctrine and pure in life. The Diocese of Illinois will probably re-elect him in two or three months, and then his case will go before the Bishops and Standing Committees, in whose hands he is sure of confirmation. The refusal on the part of the House to hear him in his own defense increases sympathy for him. A letter expressing undiminished love and confidence in Dr. Seymour is now being signed. It will receive [illegible] of signatures of Bishops, clergy and laity. It is a matter of peculiar interest that the delegation from Western New York voted for him, notwithstanding the opposition of Bishop Cox. The clerical vote of Iowa was for him, and it is known that a majority of the Bishops are in his favor.

THE FAILURE OF E. E. MORGAN'S SONS

[From the S. F. Bulletin of the 2[illegible].]

The interest in the failure of the house of E. L. Morgan's Sons seems to increase rather than diminish on account of its magnitude and complicated character. It is now believed that the losses resulting from the failure will amount to half a million dollars. The parties to suffer are principally farmers and ship owners. The latter can better afford to stand their misfortunes than the former. We have already stated that there were 17 wheat cargoes afloat on account of the Grangers, cleared through their agents, E. E. Morgan's Sons. Following is a list of these vessels and the Grangers which have loaded them:

Vessels	Centals	Value	Grangers
Star of Hope	15 148	$43 117	Dixon
Seaton	[illegible]	42 4[illegible]5	Stockton
W R Grace	[illegible] 61	92 36	Merced
City of Berlin	30 [illegible] 1	48 [illegible]	Modesto
Carrie Reed	[illegible]	68 229	Yolo
Loonah	36 3[illegible]	6[illegible]	Stockton
Imperial	38 435	[illegible]	Yolo
Triumphant	61 161	7 890	Livermore
El Dorado	31 07[illegible]	4[illegible]	Antioch
Ada Iredale	[illegible] 690	[illegible] 488	Turlock
St Charles	[illegible] 129	[illegible] 211	Collinsville
British Statesman	39 [illegible]56	69 [illegible]	Plainsburg
Alice Buck	31 9[illegible]4	64 982	Dixon
Carrollton	46 66	[illegible] 99[illegible]	Hollister
Oberon	34 601	[illegible]	Merced
Frie the Red	52 107	78,161	Colusa
Star of Scotia	[illegible] 071	47 [illegible]	Stockton

These cargoes foot up a total of [illegible] 000 centals, valued at $1 012 700, equal to $1 54 per 100 lbs. Three of the cargoes were shipped by the Stockton Grangers, two each by the Dixon, Merced and Yolo Grangers and one each by the Antioch, Collinsville, Colusa, Hollister, Livermore, Modesto, Plainsburg and Turlock Grangers. It is claimed that these Grangers have received an advance of $1 per cental on the wheat thus shipped. We hope this is so. There would still be 54c per cental due them provided they receive no more than the manifested value of the wheat at the time it was shipped. This would make a difference yet due them on the above cargoes of $[illegible] 580. If these cargoes were thrown upon the English market to-day it is probable that they would not bring more than the freight and advance, in which event our farmers would lose the $36[illegible] 000 now supposed to represent their interest in the wheat cargoes afloat on their account. The wheat aboard Grangers' ships in the harbor against which exchange has been drawn and sold on account of the suspended firm, is substantially in the same fix. What the end will be of course no one can tell. The whole matter will probably go into the Courts for settlement. One of the Granger's ships was cleared yesterday but not by the late agents and she will probably not be allowed to go to sea for the present. Others ready to depart will also be delayed until satisfactory arrangements can be made.

THE CHATTANOOGA CONVENTION OF FEDERAL OFFICE HOLDERS.—Hon. Horace Maynard was chiefly responsible for the meeting in that town of abundant dust but scanty accommodations in everything else, and it was intended to make him permanent President, but he has been wise to decline to share the discomforts he has forced upon others, and has staid away. Frantic telegrams have been sent to him this afternoon begging him to appear to-morrow or Wednesday. But Maynard being wisest in his generation, it is not much likely that he will give a favorable response. If the truth be told there is not a very great desire to be identified with this gathering except upon the part of those who are or expect to be recipients of Federal bounty. It would perhaps hardly be fair to say that the Convention is composed exclusively of office-holders, but to-day that would be nearer the truth than anything else. Those who do not hold Federal office have held State office under Federal auspices.—Cor. N. Y. Times.

A CASE UNDER THE NEW YORK CIVIL DAMAGE LAW.—Much interest will be felt in the result of the case just begun under the Civil Damages Act in Brooklyn. The law of 1873 provides that damages may be recovered from the rum-seller by civil suit in case a plaintiff can establish proof of injury in person or property in consequence of liquor being sold to a relative. In the Brooklyn case, a young man of eighteen years drank to excess at a liquor shop, became dead drunk, was taken to a police station and there died. The father brings suit for $[illegible],000, his witnesses being the young lads who accompanied his son to the drinking place where he was supplied with liquor by the defendants to this suit. The facts as related seem particularly distressing, and the decision in the suit is expected with great anxiety by a large circle of people in Brooklyn.—N. Y. Times, Oct. 13.

GEN. BANKS' CHANCES.—A Boston dispatch of Oct. [illegible] says: The Fifth Congressional District Democratic Convention of Massachusetts yesterday made no nomination. This action betokens a joint support of General N. P. Banks by the Democrats and Liberal Republicans. Banks will run as an independent candidate.

LINCOLN'S STATUE

CEREMONIES AT THE UNVEILING AT SPRINGFIELD.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 15.—An immense crowd of strangers are in the city to-day to witness the ceremonies attendant upon the unveiling of the statue of Lincoln on his monument at Oak Ridge Cemetery. The members of the Society of the Army of Tennessee, which held their annual reunion here yesterday and last night, participate in the ceremonies, and among the distinguished persons present are President Grant, Vice President Wilson, General Sherman, Senators Logan and Oglesby, General Custer, Giles A. Smith, McClernand and others.

The procession formed at eleven o'clock A. M., Governor Beveridge of Illinois acting as Grand Marshal, assisted by numerous aids. President Grant, with Secretary Belknap, occupied a barouche at the head of the procession, preceded by a military band from Newport Barracks, and escorted by the Governor's Guard, a local military company, as a guard of honor. Following came carriages containing Generals McDowell and Custer and Hon. J. K. Dubois, with Mrs. Grant, Rev. Dr. Hall, an old friend of Lincoln, with Bishop Wayman, of the African Methodist Church, Vice-President Wilson with Sir F. F. Curtain, M. P., and W. P. Foster, M. P., of England, Senator R. J. Oglesby, orator of the day, with Robert Lincoln, son of the deceased President, together with an almost interminable line of carriages with citizens. The Society of the Army of Tennessee marched on foot with General Sherman at its head, and a large number of military and civic societies followed.

Arrived at Oak Ridge Cemetery, the band played the Dead March, and Bishop Wayman made a fervent and eloquent prayer. A chorus of singers then chanted "With malice toward none, with charity for all," and the statue was then unveiled. Hon. J. K. DuBois then read a historical sketch of the organization and labors of the Lincoln Monument Association, saying that the monument is finished and is paid for; that means are provided for the completion of two of the four groups of statuary representing the infantry, cavalry, artillery and marine branches of the army, which are to be placed at the four corners of the monument, and that there are assurances that the other two will also be provided for.

In conclusion the speaker said: The members of the Association congratulate the artist upon the success which has crowned his efforts to give a faithful rendering of the face and form of the beloved dead whose remains rest beneath this monument. Every member of the Association was a neighbor of President Lincoln and most of them had known him intimately since his early manhood. It is the unanimous opinion that this statue is a truthful likeness and will serve to give to future generations a perfectly true representation of Abraham Lincoln. Here ends what has been to the members of the Association for almost ten years a labor of love and duty. By the liberal contributions of a grateful nation we have been enabled to provide a suitable place for the remains of one of the wisest, purest men known to our national history. There may they rest in peace. At the conclusion of Mr. Dubois' speech, after appropriate music from the bands, ex-Governor Oglesby was introduced and delivered an oration, which was an eloquent tribute to the Martyr President. At its conclusion the choir sang "Rest spirit, rest," and two Sisters of Charity, seated on either side of the statue, rose and removed the drapery of red, white and blue which covered it. The bands again played amid enthusiastic applause. General Grant was loudly called for and read the following address:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:—On an occasion like the present I feel it to be a duty on my part to bear testimony to the great and good qualities of the patriotic man whose earthly remains now rest beneath this dedicated monument. It was not my fortune to make the personal acquaintance of Mr. Lincoln till the beginning of the last year of the great struggle for national existence. During those years of doubting and despondency among the many patriotic men of the country, Abraham Lincoln never for a moment doubted but the final result would be in favor of peace and union and freedom to every race in this broad land. His faith in an all-wise Providence directing our arms to the final result was the faith of the Christian—that his Redeemer liveth. Amidst the obloquy, personal abuse and hate undisguised, which was given without restraint through the Press and the stump and in private circles, he remained the same staunch, unyielding servant of the people, never exhibiting a revengeful feeling toward his traducers, but rather pitying them, and hoping for their own sake and the good name of their posterity that they might desist. It did not occur to him for a single moment that the man Lincoln was being assailed, but that a treasonable spirit, one willing to destroy the best Government the sun ever shone on, was giving vent to itself on him as the chief Executive of the nation only, and he was such Executive. As a lawyer in our midst he would have avoided all this slander, for his life was a pure and simple one, and no doubt he would have been a much happier man. But who can tell what might have been the fate of the Nation but for the pure, unselfish and wise administration of Abraham Lincoln from March 1861 to the day when the hand of an assassin opened a grave for Mr. Lincoln, then President of the United States; my personal relations with him were as close and intimate as the nature of our respective duties would permit. To know him personally was to love and respect him for his great qualities of heart and head and for his patience and patriotism. With all his disappointments from failures on the part of those to whom he had entrusted command, and treachery on the part of those who had gained his confidence but to betray it, I never heard him utter a complaint nor cast censure for bad conduct or bad faith. It was his nature to find an excuse for his adversary. In his death the Nation lost her greatest, and the South its most just friend.

Ex-Vice President Colfax, who was discovered to be on the platform by the crowd, was loudly called for and in very eloquent and feeling remarks paid his tribute of love and respect to the honored dead. Remarks were also made by General Sherman, Vice President Wilson and General U. V. [illegible] after which the Doxology was sung, the benediction pronounced and the vast assemblage quietly dispersed.

A WAY TO MAKE NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN.—New Orleans, October 2[illegible].—Attorney General Williams has decided that the Second District Court of this city is not a Probate Court, and therefore cannot issue letters of naturalization. All lawyers of standing who have been consulted consider the Second District as a Probate Court under the Civil Code. The Judge who presides is an active politician, and is Chairman of the Committee of Naturalization. It is alleged by the Republicans that fully 1 000 persons who have been registered in this manner will under the decision probably be stricken from the lists. This, it is claimed, will possibly give the Republicans the city.

SUBSIDY POMEROY SEEKING TO VINDICATE HIMSELF.—The Chicago Tribune's Washington correspondent writes: "Ex-Senator Pomeroy is having steps taken to bring ex-Congressman Martin Conway, who attempted to shoot him some time since, to a speedy trial. It is supposed that the fact that the charge of the seduction of Conway's wife having been recently freshly brought against Pomeroy in Kansas is the reason why the matter is revived, as at the trial the ex-Senator proposes to prove his innocence of the charge."

A NOTABLE LECTURE COURSE.—W. Hepworth Dixon, the gifted and popular author and orator, and the editor of the London Athenæum, now in New York, has consented to deliver a course of lectures in this city during next November. His subjects will consist of the following: 1st, New German Empire; 2d, Emancipated Russia; 3d, Spanish Republic; 4th, State Founders, Raleigh and Penn; 5th, Tower of London.—S. F. Bulletin, Oct. 20.

CROAKING

[From the N. York Tribune.]

At this present time the merchants, manufacturers and farmers of the United States have a hard struggle to maintain themselves. They have a fight on their hands against the evils growing out of abuses of credit and foolhardy speculations. They find themselves in danger of being overcome by the demoralization begotten of the war and the dishonest currency, by debts and taxes. Now, what are they to gain by shutting their eyes to the dangers which surround them? They are in the enemy's country, and it is their business to know the enemy's strength. That policy of puffery and falsehood which answered so well two or three years ago will not do in these times. In its day it was a curse to the country, and now it is an insult. The truth is always salutary, and never more so than when the land is covered, as with snow, with the wreck of once successful frauds and humbugs. To tell the truth is not to croak. Truth is the very medicine that is needed. Could quackery be ever successful the country would forever be growing worse. Life with every disease were a thousand times worse than death itself.

It does seem to the superficial observer inexplicable that agriculture, trade, manufactures and transportation should be all suffering at once, with apparently no tendency towards a recovery. Great forces are at work producing a great change. The progress towards better things is none the less real because it is not instant and on the surface. The present suffering is the only measure of the disorder. Consider only the magnitude of the evil of investing in the course of three or four years three hundred million dollars in railroads which are paying nothing on the capital expended on them. Consider the next link in the chain, the iron works constructed and mines opened to supply the material for such railroads—all now prostrate together. Consider the towns and cities overloaded with debt incurred to build those railroads. Consider the stock jobbers who formerly held the seats of honor at tables where the voice of the croaker was not heard. But why go on? Is it not plain that such a waste of productive power, such a wide departure from the true course of industry, such demoralization in all classes of society, cannot be recovered from in a day? Are we going to bed to-night feeling certain that in the morning we shall be recovered from our long debauch? Are they all croakers who refuse to believe this?

We have considered it our duty to study and report from the actual condition of things; to ascertain the full strength of the enemy; to know the weakness of our posts, and to point out the stations which cannot be defended. We may not have pleased speculators, and we may have dampened the spirits of the over sanguine. But we have not exaggerated evils, and we have not painted in stronger colors than the reality. In all that concerns the exchange and consumption of goods progress has been suddenly arrested. We stand where we were two or three years ago. Nearly everybody has resolved or has been compelled, to buy and use less of the goods which his neighbor makes a living by making or selling. Hence there seems to be a general over production, even of [illegible] necessaries of life. This state of things from its very nature is temporary. [illegible] is gained by understating its [illegible] or underestimating its endurance. The [illegible] thing is to understand the one and [illegible] patiently until the other is exhausted. [illegible] are like a ship surrounded by icebergs, [illegible] lunacy to pretend [illegible] plain sailing. Each individual has his own business, in which he may or may not have committed acts of imprudence. But whether he has or has not, he himself understands his own business better than anybody else, and he himself must manage it as prudently as he can. The recovery of a healthy tone in the business world depends on the sagacity, patience, economy and other like virtues of individuals. Let those virtues be practiced and the result cannot be doubtful. By cool others [illegible] the consequences of the opposite vices had long been foreseen. We have not lost confidence in the character of our business men. The world is not coming to an end because speculators are at last awake to a realizing sense of their follies. Nor is the prospect so hopeless that the truth must be concealed. There is need however for other work than persistent croaking at the croakers. Cursing Neptune has little effect on the weather, and they in old Rome who did this whenever they lost a ship added nothing to their reputation as merchants.

THE GREAT JOCKEY CLUB RACE.—The entries for the great four-mile-and-repeat running race for a purse of $25 000 in gold coin given by the Pacific Jockey Club and to come off over the new track in this city on Saturday, Nov. 14th, closed last night with the following entries so far as heard from: Katie Pease, Thad Stevens, Hubbard, Henry, Joe Daniels, Alpha, Hock Hocking, Foster and Hardwood. The Club is receiving dispatches from various places stating that entries and money had been forwarded by express. As soon as they arrive official notice will be given in the columns of the Bulletin. Katie Pease, the celebrated mare, arrived a short time since, in charge of Mr. Patrick of Chicago. She ran this season in company with Fellowcraft and Wanderer in the great four mile dash at Saratoga, and came in third. Fellowcraft was the winner and the time was the fastest on record—7 19½. Thad Stevens, the Grangers' favorite, as he is now called, is well known, and if he comes to the track, as we have no doubt he presumably will, under the training of Henry Welsh, he will not disappoint his many friends on the Pacific coast. Alpha, the Santa Clara county favorite, under the training of Robt. O'Hanlon, is expected to perform a great feat. She beat Joe Daniels, Nell Flaherty and others at the State Fair in a race of 3 in 5. Foster came to this coast last spring for this race. Bobby Swift, the celebrated jockey of Tom Bowling, is engaged to ride him in the coming race, says the Turf, Field and Farm. The Lick House saloon was crowded last evening by people anxious to know the result of the entries, some of the turfmen having come many miles to pick up the racing news. The prospects are favorable for the greatest race ever seen on the coast.—S. F. Bulletin, Oct. 21.

THE NEWS AT WASHINGTON.—A Washington special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune of October 14th says: It is estimated that the influence of yesterday's elections will greatly affect the results in New York, Pennsylvania, and other States where elections will be held next month. The rumored defeat of Foster in Ohio causes almost universal regret, as the Democrats agree with the Republicans that no Democrat could possibly be as useful to the interests of the whole country as he would be. He is popular with all parties save the ultra Administration wing of the Republican party, to a degree that is not equaled in the case of any other man in Congress. As it has been freely asserted that Blaine was entitled to the credit of the result in Maine, the question is now raised: How much is he to blame for the result in the Cleveland and Toledo districts? He spoke in both of the districts this fall and they have both gone Democratic. The drift of opinion here is that the result in Ohio and Indiana is not so much due to the temperance issue as to the circumstances that the people have finally opened their eyes to a realization of the time and state of affairs, have thrown off the office-holders' yoke and have begun to think and act for themselves. Universal satisfaction is expressed at Parsons' defeat. Even the remains of the District ring, with whom he has so efficiently co-operated, have no word of regret for his downfall. It is conceded on all hands that this has been a poor year for parsons.

HE ENJOYED IT.—A deaf and dumb mendicant was suddenly started yesterday by the [illegible] shouts of some boys, while walking down the Avenue, and in turning slipped on a banana skin and fell. He gave the lads a severe lecture, much to the enjoyment of the blind beggar at the corner, who saw the whole occurrence through his green gla[illegible], and was much amused thereat.

OREGON

Gen. John F. Miller's fine stallion Willamette died of cholic at Salem last Sunday night. He cost $1 600 and was valued much higher by his owner.

Circuit Court for Josephine county is in session this week. The trial of Mrs. Briggs and her son for the murder of Delamater will take place.

The contract for building a Lodge for the Grangers of Howell Prairie, Marion county, was let on last Friday to M. McCorkle, at $113, the building to be 24x60 feet, 12 feet story. The materials all to be furnished upon the ground. The site for it is just south of the Howell Prairie Central School House and on a tract given to the Lodge by T. C. Shaw, Esq.

The miners on Foot's Creek in Jackson county recently held a meeting and by resolution politely requested the following named individual—William Orders—to make some other locality than Foot's Creek his future residence and scene of operations, as his absence was greatly to be preferred to his company. We expect Wm. O. [illegible] got, for when miners talk that way they mean something.

A dastardly attempt was made to set the covered bridge across Mill creek at Salem on fire last Sunday night, by some unknown party. The cock supplying the gas lamp was removed and the escaping gas set on fire, producing a terrific blaze, which if it had been allowed to burn a few minutes longer would have set the structure on fire. It was however, discovered in time to be extinguished before serious damage was done.

The Record says: "The new Board of Capitol Commissioners had an informal meeting last Saturday afternoon. A desultory talk was had but nothing definite as to future action was settled upon. Another meeting will be held upon the return of Judge Boise, who is absent in Yamhill county, at which time the Board will organize and probably take the preliminary steps toward putting the building in trim to resist the storms of winter."

A disastrous accident occurred on Friday last on Silver creek, about three miles west of Silverton, Marion county, whereby a two-year old daughter of George Cox received some very dangerous if not fatal injuries. The members of the family were momentarily absent from the room, leaving the little one playing around the stove. Hearing her repeated screams the parents rushed into the room to find the back part of her clothing burned entirely off and the child's back and shoulders terribly burned. She was suffering severely at last accounts but hopes were entertained of her recovery.

LIGHTING THE LAMPS OF A CITY INSTANTANEOUSLY.—The Manchester papers have the following:

Some engineers in Baden have just contrived an ingenious piece of mechanism, which has already been adopted in some of the public buildings and streets of Heidelberg. The object is to provide for the simultaneous lighting of the gas lamps of a town. This has been done both in Paris and [illegible] Albert Hall by the use of an electric wire, but the German engineers have invented a method more simple and durable. Their apparatus can be affixed equally to all gas jets, and it is made to act not by any special mechanism but simply by the increased pressure of the gas, which is always laid on from the gasometer when the lamps should be lighted. The one act of turning on the gas at the main ignites it at all the burners fitted with the new apparatus. In achieving this result the designers did not really obtain any very practical advantage over the method of ignition by electricity, but they pushed this invention still further, and have provided that when the pressure is diminished at the main, the gas can either be totally extinguished or let down to a thread. It is chiefly in the lighting of the streets of a town that the invention will be of practical use. Directly the gas is turned on the whole city will be simultaneously illuminated, and when, in the early morning, the pressure is reduced, the light may be totally extinguished or gradually diminished.

THE DELINQUENT BRETHREN

A pleasant scene of brethren dwelling together in unity is presented by the ring Republicans just now. The Statesman ring organ at Salem criticises severely the conduct of Senators Richardson and Watson, intimating that their absence from the Senate Chamber when a vote was to be taken on the measure to oust Watkinds from the Penitentiary, was a preconcerted matter, while the ring organ at Portland, speaks of their course as "dishonorable and disgusting" and accuses them, in so many words of "selling themselves to Bill Watkinds and betraying the people and their party" These two Senators are both shining lights of the great and glorious Republican party, which "points with pride," &c whenever it has an opportunity

Premising that we do not wish to be understood as taking sides, or interfering in this extremely enjoyable family affair we venture to inquire whether the bill which these Senators are supposed to have been hired to defeat by their absence, was merely a piece of party strategy—a measure designed to lift the Republican ring above their troubles by giving them the patronage of the Penitentiary—or a plan to improve a branch of the public service and lessen the expense of the same to the people If the latter, it deserved the unqualified support of every member be he Republican Democrat or Independent, but if it was a mere party shift, as the comments of the ring papers would lead one to infer, there was no sufficient reason for its introduction and no man should be criticised for taking the first opportunity to send it to its long home The advantage that may accrue to one political party or another, is neither justification nor excuse for a radical change in the management of an institution of such importance as the State Prison We have been of the opinion that the Penitentiary was so conducted as to involve needless expense, and we have seen nothing to alter that opinion The institution is certainly well kept, but unless our judgment is sadly at fault it is expensively, extravagantly kept This is reason enough for a change of system The proposition to make such change is vastly weakened in the estimation of every good citizen and thoughtful man when it is placed upon the low ground of party advantage Unless the ring organs can produce some better reason for attacking their delinquent brethren in the faith than that their conduct prevented their party from getting control of a large and influential patronage, they will make small headway with public sentiment

THE NEVADA CAMPAIGN

The fight against William Sharon, Senator Jones's candidate for the United States Senate, is getting very warm in Nevada The Virginia Chronicle alleges that Sharon's agents have already secured the registration of one thousand illegal voters in Storey county and that they are every where trading off names on the State ticket for members of the legislature.

De Long is passing faithful to his party allegiance "For two or three months it has been understood that he would be a candidate before the Legislature He announced it in a card and drew to his support a great many Republicans who, had it not been for his card, would have entered the Independent movement But De Long begins to see that Sharon's gold is too much for him and he proposes to withdraw for the sake of keeping peace in the Republican party In a speech at Silver City, a week ago, he said he did not believe [illegible] in the P[illegible] party could beat Mr Sharon, and therefore it was plainly his (De Long's) duty to retire from the field And this knowing all the time that Sharon is conducting the campaign on the basis recommended by Senator Jones just after his election the free use of money in primaries and in the Legislature. Sharon is Senator Jones' friend and he faithfully applies the methods advised in Jones' "memorandum" Thus the Virginia Post says

"And last but not least, A[illegible] Ken dall being kicked out of the Democratic Convention h[illegible] of his theft of back pay, now thinks William Sharon's gold in his pocket and is supported and warmly defended by the Republican party and Sharon's subsidized [illegible]"

And concerning De Long the Post makes a plain charge

It has become a settled conviction in the minds of the people throughout the State that Charley De Long never contemplated an honest and earnest fight against Sharon, that he simply entered the arena upon his anti-subsidy record for the purpose of occupying all the vacant ground in the Republican party there by preventing any other candidate making an earnest fight against Sharon Is General Williams willing to place himself in a similar position before the people of this State? He cannot avoid it, if he persists in binding the Democrat[illegible] of this county to his individual car Some action must be had at once The honest Democrats who have entered the ranks of the Independents, the honest Democrats who have remained with the old party and the honest voters everywhere, earnestly desire the [illegible] of Sharon, and they are quite numerous enough to accomplish the task if such obstacles as the Williams pledge are removed

It would be a grand thing if Sharon could be beaten after all We hope it is not too much to expect that the honest people of Nevada will astonish the corrupt ring which controls the Republican party in that State, by electing a Legislature which will send an honest man to the United States Senate

WILL WALL

Another column of editorial on the subject of Wallamet Willamette is furnished by the Bulletin, the substance of which is, that it is true the Indian tribe that inhabited the banks of the river about the falls were named the Wallamets, or Wallamuts, but that the name of the river had an entirely different origin. That concedes away the whole question No other etymology for Willamette has ever been found and if it is true that there formerly dwelt on the banks of the river a tribe of aborigines called the Wallamets that fact fixes the origin of the name to a moral certainty That is nothing left of the discussion except the question of taste, the "Will"ametters having [illegible] to borrow a friend's pun, pushed to the "Wall" at all other points

The Republic (new Republican organ in New York City) says of the recent elections With the exceptions of Iowa and Nebraska the Republicans were badly defeated in the West [illegible] There is no use in denying the ugly fact and not much use [illegible] in attempting to account for it The Congressional delegations for the Forty-fourth Congress and Indiana and Ohio are nearly reversed from the existing division of parties in the Forty third Congress * * * There is much to relieve the temporary disasters (we feel sure they are only temporary) in Ohio and Indiana in the steady Republican triumph of Iowa

Save the ring organ

Mr Hirsch as a candidate for any office in the gift of the people of Multnomah county would be elected by a great majority

We do not propose to engage in the idle discussion as to whether Hirsch could be elected in this county or not further than to say he is much too shrewd to try it again He will adopt the wise course and rest on the laurels he got by pledging himself to the temperance organization and the Liquor Dealers Association while the ring organ blows about his popularity

THE OVERLAND MONTHLY —The November number of the Overland presents a varied and interesting table of contents, opening with a continuation of John Muir's Studies in the Sierra Nevadas Heretofore he has treated of glacial denudation now he discusses post glacial There is an article on Guizot which will be read with interest by all admirers of the great historian—and all readers are his admirers The poetry of this number is delicate and dainty, and the editorial department shows careful work and good judgment

The office of Governor of New York is valued at $500 000 at least that is the price venerable Sam Tilden is willing to pay for it say his opponents The New York Herald says it was a common remark among the delegates to the Syracuse Convention after the nominations were made, that "they didn't expect to elect the ticket, but Tilden is rich and they say the old fellow is willing to bleed freely to help the boys along in the canvass" This must be cheerful reading for Tilden

Governor Furnas of Nebraska lately pardoned out of the State Prison a notorious forger and swindler, in the face of a protest from a large number of persons of all classes and now the newspapers of all parties are waltzing into the Governor in the liveliest manner imaginable

The Nebraska State Aid Society announces that there are from 5 000 to 10,000 people in that State who must be fed by charity this winter This is a result of the grasshopper visitation

A heavy storm recently passed over the region of San Luis Obispo California during which rain fell in torrents and it is reported, did immense damage to the farmers

Letters have been received at the Centennial Rooms, Philadelphia, indicating the intention of the Emperor of Brazil to be a guest of the Yankee nation in 1876

THE LECTURE.—A [illegible] present at M[illegible] Hall last [illegible] on occasion of the opening lecture of the [illegible] by the Rev D J Pierce His subject [illegible] Museums as Public Educators"—was [illegible] appropriate and was handled in a [illegible] and scholarly The lecturer is a gentleman of culture and fine [illegible] and his address thro[illegible] was [illegible] beautifully exp[illegible] He was [illegible] with great pl[illegible] the proprietor, has [illegible] course of six or seven lectures, which [illegible] delivered by [illegible] and popular speakers. The [illegible] of the course will be delivered next [illegible] Again we would urge [illegible] patronize the [illegible] ures. By so doing [illegible] profit will result [illegible] instead and a very laudable and [illegible] institution—the Museum—will be [illegible]

MISSTAND CORRECTED —The following note, which we have just received [illegible] Capt T J [illegible] will best explain itself. He says

I desire to correct the [illegible] in your [illegible] issue wherein it is made to [illegible] I am the uncle of the unfortunate lady [illegible] bears the relationship of wife to Mr [illegible] bridge, who lately [illegible] Major [illegible] in California She is, I consider, in no [illegible] related to me nor [illegible] She was alm[illegible] until very recently as I had never seen her [illegible] once or twice in my [illegible] justice to ourself we [illegible] information concerning the [illegible] bridge with Capt. CITY.

A WEAPON OF BLOOD.—At the office of Wells, Fargo & Co in this city we were shown yesterday a large and savage appearing knife which if wielded by reckless hands would be [illegible] to strike [illegible] to the heart of the [illegible] man in the land The knife was the property of the daring desperado Frank Johnson, who was arrested sometime ago for a robbery committed near Baker City, and recently [illegible] and sent [illegible] to the penitentiary from [illegible] county. Johnson, in company with an accomplice, was arrested near Winnemucca [illegible] brought back in irons. On his person was found the knife in question The weapon [illegible] is a fit companion to such a man of Johnson's desperate character. The blade is over a foot in length, and [illegible] the handle, is nearly eighteen inches long. The handle is made of buckhorn, strongly riveted to iron, while the blade is very [illegible] less than half an inch thick at the [illegible] of the best quality of English [illegible]. The point is rather blunt but the edge [illegible] a razor. This knife will weigh [illegible] pounds, and can be used as a good [illegible] for a hatchet. To a hunter or a [illegible] such a weapon would be indispensable. [illegible] could be used as an ordinary [illegible] a handax in hewing a trail [illegible] ax, or cutting wood for a camp [illegible] In a hand-to-hand encounter such a [illegible] would be a formidable weapon to oppose. [illegible] blow would be sufficient to almost sever an arm or the head from the [illegible] Along the blade is rudely carved [illegible] words "Rio Grande Camp" [illegible] evidently engraven by the owner [illegible] It is [illegible] on good authority [illegible] Johnson used the knife in scalping [illegible] after he had shot them, [illegible] kill [illegible] two Mexicans [illegible] with the [illegible] Mr Paige, who brought Johnson [illegible] is of the opinion that the knife has [illegible] in taking the lives of perhaps [illegible] as it is much worn, and appears [illegible] used for years There is no telling [illegible] how many dastardly deeds [illegible] hands the [illegible] or in how many sanguinary [illegible] it has played a conspicuous [illegible] It is [illegible] in a strong leather [illegible] unwritten history of bloodshed, [illegible] is intimately associated [illegible] of 'jewelry'

[illegible]—Mrs Sophia Ball [illegible] Lawton were arraigned in Police [illegible] morning, charged with the [illegible] of adultery From all the circumstances of the case, it seems that Mrs. Ball and [illegible] Wm. Ingate Ball, are the pro[illegible] of a piece of property in the [illegible] of the city, known as the How[illegible] For four or five years past the [illegible] wife have not lived continuously [illegible] A great portion of the time Ball has [illegible] over on the Sound More than a [illegible] ago he left and went to England on a [illegible] Returning home a short time ago he [illegible] the unwelcome discovery that 'another [illegible] had supplanted him in the good opin[illegible] of his [illegible] Both the wife [illegible] 'natural affinity' was living on intimate [illegible] in the [illegible] of the saloon and [illegible] After several ineffectual attempts to [illegible] possession of the house, the husband [illegible] a complaint at the Police Court against [illegible] wife and her alleged paramour, Geo Law [illegible] The parties were arrested on the charge [illegible] adultery, but released on $500 bail Mrs. [illegible] after being released, preferred a charge [illegible] for making threats [illegible] her life. He was arrested and brought [illegible] Reilly, but released on furnishing [illegible] bonds. The case against Mrs [illegible] was called in Police Court [illegible] was introduced during [illegible] tending to establish the [illegible] charged with adultery Be[illegible] was more than half [illegible] two witnesses having testified [illegible] the case and discharged [illegible] on the grounds of insufficiency [illegible] application for a decree of di[illegible] a [illegible] ago by Mrs [illegible] is pending at the present term [illegible] the C[illegible]

[illegible]—A small but select audience [illegible] Hall last evening on [illegible] of the opening lecture of the [illegible] by the Rev. D J Pierce His subject [illegible] "Public Educators"—was very [illegible] and was handled in a manner [illegible] The lecturer is a gen[illegible] and fine scholastic attain[illegible] and his address throughout was replete [illegible] thoughts and apt [illegible] to by his hearers [illegible] great [illegible] and interest. Mr [illegible] has made arrangements [illegible] of six or seven lectures which are [illegible] a number of our most tal[illegible] and popular speakers The second [illegible] will be delivered next [illegible] would urge upon our public [illegible] By so doing pleas[illegible] It individually to those [illegible] laudable and deserving [illegible] will be sustained

[illegible] CORRECTED.—The following note [illegible] have just received from Capt T J [illegible] will explain itself He says

IN THE BOOT BUSINESS.—Two men who came down from Oswego made complaint on Monday afternoon at Police headquarters against a fellow of many aliases, viz C Brown alias Thos Williams, alias Thos Nash charging him with the larceny of a fine pair of boots It appears that the hero of numerous aliases was a cook, employed by a gang of men engaged at work at the Oswego Iron Works A few days ago the "aliased" individual was discharged On Monday he went to the cabin during the absence of the men and purloined a pair of boots and came off down to Portland He was followed by the two men who lodged a complaint against him Late on Monday night Capt. Brannan discovered the man of aliases slumbering tranquilly on the sidewalk in an oblivious condition of drunkenness, He was lodged in jail for the night and yesterday morning was sent below for three days on a charge of drunkenness As the charge of larceny has not yet been answered Mr Alias will doubtless have to serve out a protracted term after the expiration of the present brief one So much for a man who travels under three fictitious names and steals boots besides

ORDNANCE TARGET PRACTICE.—There is at present some talk among the members of the Portland Light Battery about holding an ordnance practice before a great while An application will soon be made by the Company to the Adjutant-General of the State for the necessary munitions—cartridges and shot The Company already have about forty rounds of shot but that is deemed hardly sufficient As yet the time has not been determined upon but it will probably be about Thanksgiving The practice will take place some distance below the city We sincerely hope that the Company will conclude to hold such a practice It will be the first ordnance practice which has ever been held in the State, and on that account would be an interesting affair, and no doubt attract a large crowd of spectators

FASHION NOTES.

Plain and elegant will be the rule for winter suits

The newest thing in earrings are slippers of painted wood

Heavy ribbed black silks will be very fashionable next winter

Sashes are now tied low down on the front width of the dress and looped up on the left side.

A new imitation of the camel's hair shawl has appeared. It is said to be a "magnificent imitation."

Waists of evening dresses are to be trimmed with insertions of lace edged with real jet beads in profusion

Long shawls of black cashmere trimmed with lace and rows of beads down the back are very fashionable and very stylish.

The fashionable style of dressing the hair is in puffs Less false hair is required for which the ladies ought to be very thankful

Less gold jewelry is worn now than for many years past. Jet, Swiss wood, ebony and coral appear to be the most fashionable just at present

Those old fashioned Grecian head bands are coming in vogue again, to the intense delight of those dowagers who happen to have them on hand

It is no longer the correct thing to wear a long scarf of Spanish net about the neck. Of course this does not apply to shop girls and housemaids.

Walking suits will not be materially altered in style or length Much of the trimming will be concentrated on the front width where, of course, it is most liable to be seen.

The Dictates of Common Sense.

Persons who in most things are prompt to obey the dictates of common sense too often neglect them when they point to the necessity of promptly revitalizing the depleted body and the wearied mind And yet how foolish and dangerous it is to neglect such monitions! Disease follows closely on the track of weakness and exhaustion Arrest his silent but rapid stride by prompt invigoration The most reliable agent that can be selected for this purpose Hostetter's Stomach Bitters a palatable hygienic elixir which possesses the true requisites for toning regulating and tranquilizing both body and mind and which is, besides the chosen remedy of the American people for relieving weakness or disorders of the stomach liver and bowels as well as the numerous array of complaints which ultimately follow derangements of those organs

THE GREAT MEDICAL SUCCESS OF THE AGE. Leading druggists who have been in the business for half a lifetime, state that they have never known a medicine to enlist the entire and universal confidence of the public as rapidly as HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR. Although it has only been a few years in use it has already taken precedence of all other medicines advertised as remedies for Coughs Colds and Incipient Consumption and its annual sales are without a parallel in the history of this class of preparations.

NEW GOODS,
At the Store of
BRADLEY, MARSH & CO.,
Extensive Shipments to Arrive
Ex "JOHN L. STEPHENS" AND "AJAX."

THE FOLLOWING LETTER, FROM MR MARSH who is now purchasing in the San Francisco market will explain itself

GRAND HOTEL, 7th October 1874

DEAR BRADLEY Arrived safely having had fair average passage. Set at once to work. First called on —— Paid them $2 500 on account. Got 3 per cent discount on $1 150 not yet due Mr —— seemed well pleased said they had heard rather unfavorable accounts of us from Portland merchants going ahead too fast selling goods too low ruined the trade etc Explained the evident animus of such statements Wanted to call round on the other houses before buying but Mr —— would not let me stir—so started in and bought a splendid lot of stuff at really extraordinary low prices Cleared out 63 pieces of English waterproof and ladies cloth at 90c—regular price $1 20. These we must sell at $1 per yard and beat the wholesale houses they can't touch them at that figure There is a temporary decline in cotton goods, so secured 18 cases leading brands muslins and sheetings Selling these as usual at cost will give us a splendid advantage over all the other stores Got a fine lot Bed spreads 20 per cent under regular price In Blankets I made a special hit. The house had 12 bale, on consignment and being agents for the —— mills did not wish to exhibit them in competition Bought the lot You may think this rather stiff but when you see the splendid quality of these goods you will at once concede this a magnificent purchase Mark them / and make a noise Do not let the country storekeepers gobble all these up as they did the last cheap lot keep them for our regular customers Got two job lines in Dress Goods to sell at 25c per yard—30 per cent less than cost of importing Secured two original cases of the Buffalo brand silk warp Alpacas at agent's rates. These range in price from 25c to $1 The time is past with us for buying a piece or two Cleared out several job lines in Flannels Table Linen Napkins Towels etc etc etc Also several other goods that can best be purchased at this house Dined and wined with Mr —— Splendid house magnificently furnished Met ——

Tuesday—Called early on —— Paid our account in full Same story as to reports The fact is, the —— evidently went for us in very blackness of heart, but our name is a tower of strength that the shot of accident nor dart of chance can neither graze nor pierce The robbed that smiles steals something from the thief and you can well smile at those attempts to jostle a brother bearing his road on the rough road of life The heavy cash remittances we make regularly stun them all here. They say the Portland men are generally long winded Our getting the Granger trade is also a surprise to many Purchased a fine lot of Shawls Hosiery Men Shirts Pants Ladies Merino Vests Woolen Jackets Trimmings and all Fancy goods at this house They were most anxious to sell and as they made considerable reductions in prices I bought largely Send you invoices overland Goods go by John L. Stephens The shipment from England will arrive by next Panama steamer The Clothing, Hats etc from New York come by rail When all these are opened out our stock will be the finest on the coast Will back it up to any extent He knows we possess the powers ordained to last. His business has doubled this year This is truly a Golden State with its golden mines golden grain and the golden wealth of living manhood and womanhood pouring in at the rate of three hundred daily from all parts of the civilized and uncivilized world Would that we had railroads to enable us to share this prosperity S L MARSH

[illegible] Blood.—At the office of Wells, Fargo & Co. in this city we were shown [illegible] a large and savage appearing knife [illegible] if wielded by reckless hands, would be [illegible] to strike [illegible] to the heart of the [illegible] in the land The knife was the [illegible] of the daring desperado Frank Johnson, who was arrested some time ago for a robbery near Baker City, and recently [illegible] to the penitentiary from [illegible] Johnson, in company with an [illegible] was arrested near Winnemucca [illegible] back in irons. On his person was [illegible] the knife in question The weapon [illegible] is a fit companion to a [illegible] man of Johnson's desperate character. The blade is over a foot in length and [illegible] is nearly eighteen inches [illegible] The handle is made of buckhorn, [illegible] fitted to iron, while the blade is very [illegible] half an inch thick at the [illegible] of the best quality of English [illegible] The point is [illegible] blunt, but the edge [illegible] razor. This knife will weigh [illegible] five pounds and can be used as a good [illegible] To a hunter or a [illegible] a weapon would be indispensable [illegible] could be used as an ordinary [illegible] a handax in hewing a trail [illegible] or cutting wood for a camp [illegible] hand-to-hand encounter such a [illegible] would be a formidable weapon to oppose [illegible] blow would be sufficient to [illegible] an arm or the head from the [illegible] Along the blade is rudely carved [illegible] words "Rio Grande Camp [illegible] evidently engraven by the owner [illegible] on good authority [illegible] Johnson used the knife in scalping [illegible] he had shot them, [illegible] two [illegible] with the [illegible] who brought Johnson [illegible] of the opinion that the knife has [illegible] the lives of perhaps [illegible] worn, and appears [illegible] for years. There is no telling [illegible] hands the [illegible] or in how many sanguinary [illegible] it has played a conspicuous [illegible] in a strong leather [illegible] of bloodshed, [illegible] is intimately associated [illegible] of "jewelry"

[illegible]—Mrs Sophia Ball [illegible] was arraigned in Police [illegible] ing, charged with the [illegible] all the circumstances of the case, it [illegible] that Mrs. Ball and Wm. [illegible] Ball, are the pro[illegible] of a [illegible] of property in the [illegible] of the city, known as the How[illegible] For four or five [illegible] past the [illegible] have not lived continuously [illegible] portion of the time Ball has [illegible] over on the Sound More than a [illegible] he left and went to England on a [illegible] ding home a short time ago he [illegible] discovery that "another [illegible] him in the good opin[illegible] Both the wife [illegible] living on intimate [illegible] in the full [illegible] of the saloon and [illegible] After several [illegible] attempts to [illegible] of the [illegible] the husband [illegible] complaint at the Police Court against [illegible] and her alleged paramour, Geo Law[illegible] The parties were arrested on the charge [illegible] but [illegible] on $500 bail Mrs. [illegible] being released, preferred a charge [illegible] for making threats [illegible] He was arrested and brought [illegible] but released on furnishing [illegible] The case against Mrs. [illegible] in Police Court [illegible] was introduced during [illegible] tending to establish the [illegible] charged with adultery Be[illegible] was more than half [illegible] having testified [illegible] the case and discharged [illegible] on the grounds of insufficiency [illegible] for a decree of di[illegible] ago by Mrs. [illegible] at the present term of the Court.

[illegible] A small but select audience [illegible] Hall last evening on [illegible] of the opening lecture of the [illegible] Rev. D J Pierce His subject [illegible] Public Educators"—was very [illegible] and was handled in a manner [illegible] The lecturer is a gen[illegible] and fine scholastic attain[illegible] throughout was replete [illegible] thoughts and apt [illegible] to by his hear[illegible] and interest. Mr [illegible] has made arrangements [illegible] of seven lectures, which are [illegible] of our most tal[illegible] speakers The second [illegible] will be delivered next [illegible] would urge upon our public [illegible] lectures. By so doing pleas[illegible] result individually to those [illegible] is very laudable and deserving [illegible] Museum—will be sustained.

[illegible] Co-[illegible]—The following note, [illegible] we have just received from Capt T J [illegible] explain itself He says

"[illegible] at the statement in your [illegible] it is made to appear [illegible] of the unfortunate lady [illegible] relationship of wife to Mr F [illegible] who lately took the life of Major [illegible] She is I consider in no [illegible] nor did I bring her to Cali[illegible] an entire stranger to [illegible] lady, as I had never seen her [illegible] my life"

[illegible] we will state that the [illegible] the relationship of Mrs [illegible] Stump was obtained [illegible] papers containing an [illegible] We had every rea[illegible] to believe the statements made were cor[illegible]

[illegible] will be [illegible] morning in the [illegible] against Brid[illegible] Gallagher and [illegible] In the former [illegible] the defendant was indicted and found [illegible] found— for endeavoring to extort money by the [illegible] threats the other for [illegible] weapon On being arr[illegible] on Mon[illegible] the defendant withdrew the former plea [illegible] guilty and entered a plea of guilty in [illegible] of the second indictment [illegible] assault with [illegible] weapon. The first indictment [illegible] on [illegible] of the District At[illegible] and W [illegible] fixed for [illegible] sentence.

[illegible]—Last evening Jas Turk, the [illegible] of a [illegible] house at the [illegible] was arrested on [illegible] charge of [illegible] a sailor named Fitz[illegible] between the parties [illegible] Turk dealt the sailor a severe blow above [illegible] eye, [illegible] gash, and caus[illegible] the man to bleed like a stuck hog [illegible] arrested and taken to [illegible] ting $30 Fitzgerald [illegible] for disorderly conduct as he [illegible] intoxicated at the time of the [illegible] in jail. This morning [illegible] will be interviewed in Police [illegible]

[illegible]—The steamer Oriflamme arrived [illegible] Francisco on Monday evening [illegible] The Oriflamme has been mak[illegible] to enable the Ajax to [illegible] repairs These having [illegible] the latter steamer will [illegible] Some altera[illegible] have been made to the [illegible] works, which will materially [illegible] accommodations

[illegible] Several weeks ago the O[illegible] was tied up at Ore[illegible] to undergo sundry repairs While [illegible] were being made the steamer Alice [illegible] daily on the line between [illegible] and Oregon City The Senator having [illegible] reported in condition for service is [illegible] running between these points, Yes[illegible] afternoon she came down the river [illegible] to the guards with flour

[illegible]—At a recent meeting held [illegible] Portland Lodge No 201, I O G T, [illegible] were elected for the ensu[illegible] [illegible] Augusta Miller, W C T [illegible] V T W R Struble [illegible] W F S Frank [illegible] W M Mrs [illegible] Worthy Chaplain Miss [illegible] I G Enoch Turner O G

In the Boot Business.—Two men who came down from Oswego made complaint on Monday afternoon at Police headquarters against a fellow of many aliases, viz C Brown alias Thos Williams, alias Thos Nash, charging him with the larceny of a fine pair of boots It appears that the hero of numerous aliases was a cook, employed by a gang of men engaged at work at the Oswego Iron Works A few days ago the 'aliased' individual was discharged On Monday he went to the cabin during the absence of the men and purloined a pair of boots and came off down to Portland He was followed by the two men who lodged a complaint against him Late on Monday night Capt. Brannan discovered the man of aliases slumbering tranquilly on the sidewalk in an oblivious condition of drunkenness. He was lodged in jail for the night and yesterday morning was sent below for three days on a charge of drunkenness As the charge of larceny has not yet been answered, Mr Alias will doubtless have to serve out a protracted term after the expiration of the present brief one So much for a man who travels under three fictitious names and steals boots besides

Ordnance Target Practice.—There is at present some talk among the members of the Portland Light Battery about holding an ordnance practice before a great while An application will soon be made by the Company to the Adjutant-General of the State for the necessary munitions—cartridges and shot The Company already have about forty rounds of shot but that is deemed hardly sufficient As yet the time has not been determined upon, but it will probably be about Thanksgiving The practice will take place some distance below the city We sincerely hope that the Company will conclude to hold such a practice It will be the first ordnance practice which has ever been held in the State and on that account would be an interesting affair and no doubt attract a large crowd of spectators

FASHION NOTES.

Plain and elegant will be the rule for winter suits

The newest thing in earrings are slippers of painted wood.

Heavy ribbed black silks will be very fashionable next winter

Sashes are now tied low down on the front width of the [illegible] and looped up on the left side.

A new imitation of the camel's hair shawl has appeared. It is said to be a "magnificent imitation."

Waists of evening dresses are to be trimmed with insertions of lace edged with real jet beads in profusion

Long shawls of black cashmere trimmed with lace and rows of beads down the back are very fashionable and very stylish.

The fashionable style of dressing the hair is in puffs Less false hair is required for which the ladies ought to be very thankful

Less gold jewelry is worn now than for many years past. Jet, Swiss wood, ebony and coral appear to be the most fashionable just at present.

Those old fashioned Grecian head bands are coming in vogue again to the intense delight of those dowagers who happen to have them on hand

It is no longer the correct thing to wear a long scarf of Spanish net about the neck Of course this does not apply to shop girls and housemaids.

Walking suits will not be materially altered in style or length Much of the trimming will be concentrated on the front width, where of course, it is most liable to be seen

The Dictates of Common Sense.

Persons who in most things are prompt to obey the dictates of common sense too often neglect them when they point to the necessity of promptly revitalizing the depleted body and the wearied mind And yet how foolish and dangerous it is to neglect such monitions! Disease follows closely on the track of weakness and exhaustion Arrest his silent but rapid stride by prompt invigoration The most reliable agent that can be selected for this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a palatable hygeian elixir which possesses the true requisites for toning regulating and tranquilizing both body and mind and which is besides the chosen remedy of the American people for relieving weakness or disorders of the stomach liver and bowels as well as the numerous array of complaints which ultimately follow derangements of these organs

THE GREAT MEDICAL SUCCESS OF THE AGE

Leading druggists who have been in the business for half a lifetime state that they have never known a medicine to enlist the entire and universal confidence of the public as rapidly as Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar Although it has only been a few years in use it has already taken precedence of all other medicines advertised as remedies for Coughs Colds and Incipient Consumption and its annual sales are without a parallel in the history of this class of preparations

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY OFFERED
For the relief of the afflicted.

The Surgeons of the National Surgical Institute will visit the Pacific Coast on the 1 th day of November and remain until the 1 th day of December 1874—one month—at their old building No 319 Bush street between Kearny and Montgomery San Francisco

This is a chance for help which every sufferer should take advantage of The hundreds of patients treated by them during their former visits are all rapidly being benefited and cured The treat successfully all cases of [illegible] the Face [illegible] Fyes and Ears [illegible] Private Diseases Diseases of Females Piles [illegible] No hopeless cases are undertaken but it really does seem as if no cases are hopeless in the hands of these skillful surgeons

They are preparing all the machinery necessary for the [illegible] lized Limbs [illegible] and a full line of braces and appliances [illegible] All who commence treatment during this visit and the many hundreds now under treatment will have the advantages of all these most effectual means of cure besides one of the surgeons will this time remain to continue their treatment

Remember the time and place and come as early in the month as possible [illegible] getting the full benefit of their visit

If you are troubled with a Slight Cold, Hoarseness or Sore Throat you may save the expense of a doctor's bill by using at once Dr Jayne's Expectorant. A neglected cold often terminates through much suffering in Consumption. A slight inflammation of the lining of the windpipe, the usual symptoms of which are a Sore Throat or a Pain in the Breast will, if not properly attended to, frequently lead to Bronchitis. Even as a matter of economy to say nothing of comfort, or the danger of pulmonary and bronchial organs [illegible] with your Cold, and by resorting in time to a standard remedy—the Expectorant—save money, and escape more serious trouble

NEW GOODS,
At the Store of
BRADLEY, MARSH & CO.,
Extensive Shipments to Arrive
Ex "JOHN L. STEPHENS" AND "AJAX."

THE FOLLOWING LETTER, FROM MR MARSH who is now purchasing in the San Francisco market will explain itself

Grand Hotel, 7th October 1874

Dear Bradley Arrived safely having had fair average passage. Set at once to work. First called on —— Paid them $2,500 on account. Got 3 per cent discount on $1 150 not yet due Mr —— seemed well pleased, said they had heard rather unfavorable accounts of us from Portland merchants going ahead too fast, selling goods too low ruined the trade etc. Explained the evident animus of such statements Wanted to call round on the other houses before buying but Mr —— would not let me stir—so started in and bought a splendid lot of stuff at really extraordinary low prices. Cleared out 63 pieces of English waterproof and ladies cloth at 90c—regular price $1 20. These we must sell at $1 per yard and beat the wholesale houses they can't touch them at that figure There is a temporary decline in cotton goods so secured 15 cases leading brands muslins and sheetings. Selling these as usual at cost will give us a splendid advantage over all the other stores Got a fine lot Bed spreads 20 per cent under regular price In Blankets I made a special hit The house had 12 bales on consignment and being agents for the —— mills did not wish to exhibit them in competition Bought the lot You may think this rather stiff but when you see the splendid quality of these goods you will at once concede this a magnificent purchase Mark them low and make a noise. Do not let the country storekeepers gobble all these up as they did the last cheap lot keep them for our regular customers Got two job lines in Dress Goods to sell at 25 (37½c per yard—50 per cent. less than cost of importing Secured two original cases of the Buffalo brand silk warp Alpacas at agent's rates. These range in price from 50c to $1. The time is past with us for buying a piece or two Cleared out several job lines in Flannels Table Linen Napkins Towels etc all very low Also several other goods that can best be purchased at this house Dined and wined with Mr —— Splendid house magnificently furnished Met ——

Tuesday—Called early on —— Paid our account in full Same story as to reports The fact is, the —— evidently went for us in very blackness of heart, but our name is a tower of strength that the shot of accident nor dart of chance can neither graze nor pierce The robbed that smiles steals something from the thief and we can well smile at these attempts to jostle a brother bearing his road on the rough road of life The heavy cash remittances we make regularly stun them all here. They say the Portland men are generally "long winded" Our getting the Granger trade is also a surprise to many Purchased a fine lot of Shawls Hosiery Men's Shirts Pants Ladies Merino Vests Woolen Jackets Trimmings and all fancy goods at this house They were more anxious to sell and as they made considerable reductions in prices I bought largely Send you invoices overland Goods by John L. Stephens The shipment from England will arrive by next Panama steamer The Clothing Hats etc from New York come by rail When all these are opened out our stock will be the finest on the coast Will back us up to any extent He knows we possess the powers of staying to last His business has doubled this year This is truly a Golden State with its golden mines golden grain and the golden wealth of living manhood and womanhood pouring in at the rate of three hundred daily from all parts of the civilized and uncivilized world Would that we had railroads to enable us to share this prosperity S L MARSH.
